

MINISTER CHAN CHUN SING'S VISIT TO JAKARTA, INDONESIA FROM 16 TO 18 SEPTEMBER 2019

1. Minister for Trade and Industry Chan Chun Sing visited Jakarta, Indonesia from 16 to 18 September 2019.
2. During the visit, Mr Chan co-chaired the 9th Singapore-Indonesia Six Bilateral Economic Working Groups (6WG) Ministerial Meeting with Indonesia's Coordinating Minister for Economic Affairs Darmin Nasution on 16 September 2019. The 6WG is a key platform for Singapore-Indonesia economic cooperation¹. At the meeting, both ministers welcomed the progress on economic collaborations between Singapore and Indonesia. These include the development of Kendal Industrial Park in Central Java and Nongsa Digital Park in Batam, and cooperation in investment, agricultural trade, and tourism.
3. The ministers discussed collaboration opportunities under President Jokowi's priorities, in the areas of infrastructure development, human capital development and the digital economy. They also co-signed a Joint Report outlining these initiatives and highlighting the achievements and progress. The Joint Report will be submitted to Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong and President Joko Widodo, ahead of their meeting at the Singapore-Indonesia Leaders' Retreat in October 2019.
4. Mr Chan called on Indonesia's Finance Minister Sri Mulyani Indrawati and Industry Minister Airlangga Hartarto. He exchanged views with the Indonesian Ministers on global economic developments, regional economic collaborations, and progressing bilateral ties in the areas of our Bilateral Investment Treaty, Avoidance of Double Taxation Agreement, Industrial 4.0 co-operation, development of industrial parks and vocational training.
5. Mr Chan also had meetings with former presidents Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono and Megawati Sukarnoputri, where they reaffirmed Singapore and Indonesia's strong bilateral ties and the importance of regional cooperation within ASEAN.
6. Mr Chan also met with former Coordinating Minister for Economic Affairs and Chairman of CT Corp Chairul Tanjung, former Finance Minister Chatib Basri, former Jakarta Vice-Governor Sandiaga Uno, and prominent Indonesian leaders in business, media and academia. They discussed economic and socio-political developments within Indonesia and the world.
7. Singapore and Indonesia share close trade and investment ties. Trade between Singapore and Indonesia amounted to S$65.0 billion in 2018, increasing by 9.4 per cent from the previous year. Singapore was also
