

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Response to media queries on the World Economic Forum's rescheduling of the Special Annual Meeting

The World Economic Forum has proposed to reschedule the Special Annual Meeting in Singapore to 17-20 August, in light of global travel restrictions and the international challenges in combating the virus at this stage.

The Singapore Government understands the challenges faced by the World Economic Forum and has agreed to the reschedule. We will continue to partner the World Economic Forum closely to host a safe and successful Special Annual Meeting in Singapore.
