

BOARD CHANGES AT THE ENERGY MARKET AUTHORITY

1. The Ministry of Trade and Industry (MTI) today announced that Mr Richard Lim will relinquish his appointment as Chairman of the Energy Market Authority (EMA) on 30 September 2025. Mrs Tan Ching Yee will be appointed Deputy Chairperson from 1 June 2025 to 30 September 2025 and will assume the Chairperson position from 1 October 2025 to 31 March 2027.

2. Under Mr Lim's leadership, EMA has undertaken important moves to strengthen Singapore's energy security, including the set-up of Meranti Power to develop fast start power generation and the establishment of the Centralised Gas Procurement Framework. He has also been instrumental in advancing Singapore's energy transition, such as the deployment of solar energy, the pursuit of low-carbon electricity imports from the region and ongoing studies on the feasibility of other low-carbon technologies such as hydrogen and geothermal energy.

3. Dr Beh Swan Gin, Permanent Secretary at MTI said, "On behalf of MTI, I would like to express our deep appreciation to Richard for his invaluable contributions to EMA. He has been instrumental in guiding EMA since April 2020 as Chairman. I am confident that Ching Yee will build on Richard's contributions and steer EMA to new heights."

(The write-up of Mrs Tan and the full list of Board Members of EMA can be found in Annex A and Annex B respectively.)

New EMA Deputy Chairperson

Mrs Tan Ching Yee
Former Permanent
Secretary, Ministry of Finance

Mrs Tan, 60, retired from the public service on 1 May 2025, following a career that began in 1986. She has served in various appointments in the Ministries of Trade and Industry, Education, then-Information, Communications and the Arts, and Health.

In 2016, Mrs Tan was concurrently appointed as Permanent Secretary (Finance) and Permanent Secretary (Prime Minister's Office) (Special Duties).

During COVID-19, she oversaw critical relief measures for families and businesses through the use of reserves.

Mrs Tan represented Singapore as G20 Finance Deputy and Sherpa for nine years, advancing Singapore's international interests at international and regional forums.

In her various leadership roles, she has consistently emphasised people and leadership development, nurturing of a culture of excellence and teamwork.

In recognition of her contributions to the Public Service, Mrs Tan was awarded the Public Administration Medal (Gold) in 2008 and the Meritorious Service Medal in 2018.
